Preface

Housing is regarded as one of the key indicators of economic growth. Housing sector, through its strong backward and forward linkages, gives a strong push to national/ state economies. Housing and housing amenities are major indicators to gauge human well-being of the population of a state. ## INTRODUCTION

The meaningful formulation of housing schemes and policies requires authentic and reliable data. This report brings together all documents relating to new buildings constructed and completed in 2019-20. This report contains data pertaining to the number of newly constructed buildings, its sectorwise classification viz; rural and urban, type of ownership and type of roofing, density of newly constructed buildings, and comparison with the data of previous years, etc. This data is collected from concerned local body registers by the field level officers of Economics and Statistics Department. Data are available at panchayat/municipality/corporation level. The database will be a guideline factor based on which the housing policies of the state and central have to be evolved and its efficacy monitored.
